VALIANT NEWS:-

Presuming that the local intelligence of the neighborhood is read with interest, and the evidence being conclusive of a variety of facts and fancies being afloat, therefore, is your correspondent committing to paper the ideas "caught, living as they rise."

Our usually quiet vicinity was thrown into consternation a few days since, by the announcement that an entire family had been passed. Upon repairing to the scene, the following facts were elicited. A number of the household, including all the male members, were absent. Two aged ladies—two small children—and a servant boy, were the victims of the fiendish deed. It appears that a servant woman had made threats a few days previous, against the old ladies, and considered the occasion a suitable one to carry out her design. Upon the examination, no doubt remained of their being poisoned, but by proper treatment they have all recovered. There is not sufficient legal evidence to warrant a criminal prosecution, although, no doubt remains of her guilt. A trip to the South will be beneficial to her health and morals. Some hotter climate should await all such demons in the human shape.

It was announced in flaming handbills, that Col. T. S. Martin, Democratic Elector for Bourbon county, would FAVOR our citizens with a speech, on Saturday last. The day come—so did the speaker, but the people didn't. Four Sag-nichts, all told, took their stand, expecting the Col. to do the same; but for some reason, he declined the honor of addressing so vast an assembly: So the "people" were not edified, and the speaker was not gratified. After naming, he left, doubtless under the impression that his transcendent talents were not properly appreciated. This redoubtable crusader, so eager to enlighten his fellow citizens upon the great issues of the day, is certainly a remarkable man.—The most prominent among his great qualities, however, is his stentorian voice. Although, not musical, (a failing common to another class of Nature's Creation,) it must, unquestionably have a powerful effect upon the acoustics of his auditory. By the way, I may remark, that political apostates meet with but little sympathy from the people of "an end—n'ty, even from the party, to which they have joined themselves.—Whatever may be the merit of a man, in a moral or political sense, whenever he attempts to foist himself upon the public as a patriot, without the shadow of evidence, except his insu pixi, he must expect to sink himself to that political oblivion which is so justly his due. We wish the Sag-nichts joy of their new ally. It is a fact, that the anti-American, Sag-nicht, anti-Democratic party has for the past four years been plundering the public treasury, and that the United States during the whole of that time has been without Government except in name.

It is a fact, that on three several occasions the pro-slavery men in Kansas and Missouri have assembled to administer retribution, for unprovoked and unmerited murders committed by free State men, and have each time encountered United States bayonets, sent there by the administration, only when it became obvious that vengeance would be dealt upon the free State men.

Grand Mass Meeting and Barbecue.

The Americans of Scott County will give a grand mass meeting on Thursday October 16th, in the woods of Jas. F. Robinson, Esq., about one mile from Georgetown. They are desirous that all of the sister counties shall share their hospitality on that occasion and take this opportunity of extending them a hearty invitation and assuring them they shall meet with a still heartier welcome. No pains will be spared to make it an occasion which will reflect honor upon the American Party and give new lustre to old fashion hospitality. Ample provisions will be made for the accommodation of 25 000 persons. Distinguished speakers will be in attendance from various parts of the Country. Among those invited are the following:

Hon. James O. Putnam of N. Y.

Chauncy Burr, of N. Y.

Hon. H. M. Fuller of Penn.

Hon. J. S. Harrison, of Ohio.

Col. F. T. Chambers of Ohio

C. T. Ware, Esq., of Ohio.

Hon. J. J. Crittenden,

Hon. Humpirey Marshall,

Hon. Joshua F. Bell,

Hon. J. B. Thompson,

Hon. J. B. Houston,

Hon. L. M. Cox,

Hon. Garrett Davis,

Hon. A. K. Marshall,

Gen. W. S. Pitlcher,

Hon. George D. Prentice,

Roger Hanson Esq.

Maj. E. B. Bartlett,

Hon. H. Clay, Esq.

The ladies are especially invited to honor the occasion with their presence.—Menter's celebrated American cornet band has been secured for the occasion.—Come one! come all!—Papers friendly to the American cause will please no-teach. P. S. The young men of Georgetown will give a grand Union ball on the night of the 16th.—Georgetown Journal.

One of the Fremont orators at the North, travels with a huge circus tent and a band of minstrels, at the expense of the Free soil committee. Whenever he arrives at a town, he pitches his tent, sets his minstrels to singing and thus gathers the crowd, whom he harangues in the most approved style of abolition oratory.

VAN BUREN'S PLATFORM.—In 1848, Martin Van Buren thus avowed his position: "We inscribe on our banner, 'free-soil, free speech, free labor, and free men, and under it fight on, and fight forever, until a triumphant victory shall reward our exertions. But, enough upon this topic.

It is needless to tell you that Fillmore stock is rising in the Gibraltor precincts; we'll convince you of that fact in November. Undoubtedly Yours,

B. K. O. T. C.

Facts for the People.

It is a fact that John C. Fremont was the first choice of the Sag-nicht Party for President.

It is a fact, that the Sag-nicht leaders applied to John C. Fremont, to run him as their candidate, and he declined the honor.

It is a fact, that Squatter, ten cent Federalist, Jimmy, was nominated by "packed Delegates," "Delegates of Straw," and Northern administration "shoulder strikers," "bruisers," and "ballot box stuffers."

It is a fact, that J. C. Fremont is not a qualified voter of any State in the Union, and not a naturalized citizen of the United States.

It is a fact, that J. C. Fremont, (the Sag-nicht's first choice) is a Roman Catholic.

It is a fact, that the American party is the Union party, and that Fillmore and Donelson are the only true National Union nominees for President and Vice-President.

It is a fact, that the modern so called anti-Know Nothing party, has caused all the bloodshed, robbery and murder in Kansas.

It is a fact, that the anti-American, Sag-nicht, anti-Democratic party has for the past four years been plundering the public treasury, and that the United States during the whole of that time has been without Government except in name.

It is a fact, that the quasi-Democratic Foreign, semi-Roman Catholic party has for the past four years been plundering the public treasury, and that the United States during the whole of that time has been without Government except in name.

It is a fact, that the quasi-Democratic Foreign, semi-Roman Catholic party has for the past four years been plundering the public treasury, and that the United States during the whole of that time has been without Government except in name.

Rockbridge on the stump.—He is a natural Squatter Sovereign.

The Bogus Democrat candidate for our Vice Presidency, John C. Breckinridge, has taken the stump for himself in good earnest. He has recently made speeches in Kentucky, at Cincinnati, and at a Sag Night grand "fizzle" at up preface. He is to speak soon at Louisville, and probably at several places on the route thither. What is to be thought of such conduct as this? When will Mr. Buchanan mount the stump for himself and Breck? John van Buren spoke at Tippecanoe in company with Breckinridge. What do Southern men think of this? And what will they say when they read the following passages from Breckinridge's speeches at "Appomattox"?

The speaker had heard it charged that the fifteen slave States were conspiring to obtain entire possession of the General Government, with a view of bringing its power to bear to extend and perpetuate their "peculiar institution." Gentlemen, there has been no such attempt. I am connected with no party that has for its object the extension of slavery, nor with any to prevent the people of a State or Territory from deciding the question of its existence or non-existence with them for themselves.

The speaker continued: I happened to be in Congress when the Kansas-Nebraska bill passed, and gave it my voice and my vote, and because it did, viz: It acknowledged the right of the people of the Territory to settle the question for themselves; and not because I supposed, what I do not now believe, that it legislated slavery into the Territory. The Democratic party is not a pro-slavery party; it is neither proslavery nor anti-slavery.

Here Squatter Sovereignty is not only strongly endorsed, but is fully admitted to exist in the Kansas-Nebraska Bill.

Tricks of the Enemy.

We wish to caution our American friends against the "insidious wiles" of the Sag Nights, says the Memphis Eagle. We learn that they approached Americans in this way: "We want to beat Fremont. Will you vote for the strongest man for that purpose?" The American answers yes. "Well, now, the fight is between us," says the Sag Nell, "Fillmore stands no sort of a chance, come, pledge yourself at once for Buchanan. He is a very weak American who could be led off by such a trick. If water was as weak as he, it would not have strength enough to run down hill. Stand to your man; he can be elected. He is twice as strong in the North as Buchanan, and much stronger, or will be in November than Fremont.

Take the Americans and Whigs, and they can elect Fillmore; there is no sort of a doubt of that.—When Fillmore's great and increasing strength in the North is known in the South, the Southern States will go for him. Every breeze from the North, wafts to us the noise of the tramp of the Fillmore hosts and the clangor of their arms. Americans of the South, be of good cheer. The day will be ours.—Mark it.

An Article for the Million.

Some in speaking of the Kansas-Nebraska bill, assert that it gives each foreigner 160 acres of land, while others declare that there is no such a thing connected with the bill. In Dunton's laws of the United States, page 1427, chapter 111, we find a law headed thus:—"An act to establish the office of Surveyor General of Mexico, Kansas, and Nebraska, to grant donations to actual settlers therein, and for other purposes." Under this heading, the law runs as follows:

And to every white male citizen of the United States, or every white male above the age of twenty-one years, who has declared his intention to become a citizen, and who shall have removed or shall remove to and settle in said Territory between the first of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-three, and the first day of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, there shall in like manner be donated one quarter section, or one hundred and sixty acres, on condition of actual settlement and cultivation for not less than four years."

The Italian organ-grinder, according to this law, may take his stand on our Territory, declare his intention to become a citizen, and claims 160 acres of land while the young man raised on the soil whose brother fell into the arms of death fighting for this Territory, must stand aside, if nineteen or twenty years of age.—Ex.

CHANCES FROM THE DEMOCRACY TO FILLMORE.—An Exchange says: In the Northern States the old Hard-shell Democrats, are continually abjuring "cent Jimmy" and allying to the support of Fillmore. This is the case particularly in Pennsylvania. The names of the leaders in this movement are reported, but there are thousands of the masses, quiet, honest, sober-thinking, Union-loving people, who have deserted Buchanan and determined to vote for Fillmore. Of this class of voters we shall hear something in November, when the party of Fillmore and Donelson and the Union will sweep victoriously over the whole nation. Among the recent conversions we find the following:

John Chas. Fraily (former Democratic Senator from Schuylkill County) is openly acting with the Fillmore and Donelson party and is Chairman of the American Executive Committee of that County.

R. M. Palmer, former editor of a Democratic paper at Pottsville, is one of the master spirits of the Fillmore movements in Schuylkill County.

The Buchananers of Connecticut, too, are turning to Fillmore. The New Haven Journal says that no less than two hundred Democrats who have heretofore supported Buchanan have subscribed to the new Fillmore paper to be started in Hartford, and it was further intimated that the Democratic paper in Waterbury was about to declare for Fillmore.

John J. W. Thomas, a Democratic Electoral candidate in Georgia, declines serving on the electoral ticket, because, as he states, he will not vote for Buchanan.

Timothy Rives has tendered his resignation as Democratic Presidential Elector in the Second Congressional District of Virginia.

THAT FILTHY SEWER.—We find the following notice in the New York Express, of the Middletown, New York, Fifth Sewer—the "Banner of Liberty." It appears, that the thing is so little known in New York, that the Express is not even aware of its name:

THE SOUTH BEING HUMBUGGED BY BUCHANAN.—A paper is printed in Middletown, Orange county, (a town with about 1,000 inhabitants)—on purpose to circulate South, and apparently for no other purpose—as it is a paper not known out of the town where it is printed, and scarcely known there. The circulation, however, is large in Tennessee and Alabama, and other Southern States, and the object of giving it that circulation seems to be, to paint Buchanan as ultra-Southern, and the Northern Democracy all Southern,—while Fillmore and his friends are all Abolition.

Beware, friends South, of this humbug. It is a wooden nutmeg. It is a Yankee cloak, that won't go. It is Southern cotton, woven by a Northern spinning Jenny,—for the Southern nigger market. It is no Northern paper,—only a Northern humbug,—doubtless paid for by Buchanan men off South.

A Biographical Acrostic.

While the following lines give a complete biography of a distinguished public man, the first capital letter of each line being taken down from the top, will give his name:—

Joined the Federal party in early life.

Accused the Democracy of libelling Washington.

Made speeches against Jas. Madison in 1816.

Even charged him with cowardice for leaving the capital.

Spoke of the Democracy as being a corrupt party.

Bid the people to beware of foreign influence.

Utterly opposed to the extension of slavery in 1819.

Carged Clay with bargain and sale in 1825.

Had he any Democratic blood, would let it out.

Always vacillating, never stable in opinions.

Never originated any measure for the public good.

Advocated low wages doctrine in 1824.

Not simply James Buchanan, but on the Democratic platform of 1856.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS, a wonderful Cure of Ulcers in the Leg.—Frederick Illiff, of Houston, Texas, was afflicted for eight years with seven ulcers in the leg, like the keys of a flute, which discharged continually and rendered his life one of the greatest wretchedness and misery; many remedies were tried in vain; he became worse, at last he had recourse to Holloway's Ointment and Pills, and by preserving with these remedies according to the printed directions for nine weeks, he was radically cured, and is now able to walk better than ever he was in his life.

WITHDRAWAL OF MR. BUCHANAN.—It is stated that Mr. Breckinridge recently made a proposition to Mr. Buchanan at the Wheatlands, yesterday, on the subject of his withdrawal. The plan is to get Mr. Donelson also to withdraw, and unite the Democratic and the American tickets in the persons of Fillmore and Breckinridge. Such a ticket, Mr. Breckinridge thinks, will be likely to succeed against Fremont and Dayton. What is to be done about the two platforms, does not appear. Nor have we learned what response Mr. Buchanan made to the proposition.—Philadelphia Bulletin, 11th.

BUCHANAN SINKING FAST.

The Nashville (Tenn.) Banner, Hon. Allen A. Hall, Editor, speaks thus:

In our thirty years' editorial experience, we can with truth say we never knew the leaders and organs of any party in as horrible a fix as are the leaders and organs of the Democratic party in Tennessee, at this present writing. Sinking, fast sinking, under the unbearable weight of Buchanan, the way they squat, squirm, and twist, and catch at straws, is a "caution."

A PERFUMED BREATH!!

WHAT Lady or Gentleman would remain under the Curse of a disagreeable breath when by using the "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS" as a dentifrice would not only render it sweet but leave the teeth white as alabaster. Many persons do not know their breath is bad, and the subject is often denied, but we can easily ascertain it. Put a single drop of the "Balm" on your tooth brush and wash the teeth and morning. A fifty cent bottle will last a year.

A Beautiful Complexion may easily be acquired by using the

as a dentifrice, powder, and friction from the skin leaving it a soft and rosy hue. Wet a towel, pour on two or three drops, and wash the face night and morning.

Savino Manz East.—Wet your shaving-brush in either warm or cold water, pour on two or three drops of the "BALM OF A THOUSAND FLOWERS," rub the beard well and it will make a beautiful lather much facilitating the operation of shaving. Price 50 cents.

U The old line Whigs of the Union are coming up to the support of Fillmore with an enthusiasm which promises to increase daily from now until the election. There is indeed ground for encouragement—hope for the country. Let every man now do his duty and success will crown our united labor with laurels that will never fade.

U Arrison, who was convicted some time ago at Cincinnati of manslaughter, for killing Allison by an infernal machine, has been sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years. There is yet an indictment for murder pending against him for killing Mrs. Allison.

U The Democratic Governor of Indiana, Mr. Wright, made a speech on the 17th of last month at Indianapolis, in which occurred the declaration that the Democratic party as the only true friend of freedom in the country. He said that "if the policy of the Democratic party in reference to slavery be adopted and carried out "Not another foot of Slave Territory will be added to the United States."

Mr. Groesbeck, of Cincinnati a distinguished Democrat, says that if Buchanan is elected not another foot of slavery territory will be added to the Union. This may be found in the Cincinnati Enquirer of the 4th of July last.

The attention of the reading public is particularly called to the advertisement of our neighbor, S. A. FELT, in another column. Mr. A. has brought on within the last few days the largest and most complete stock of Fall and Winter Clothing, Hats and Caps, Shoes and Boots ever brought to this market, and all of the best and choices quality of goods, which he is bent and determined on selling as low if not lower than goods can be offered for in Cincinnati, as his aim is to bring that market right at our doors. Quick sales and small profits is his only motto. Each and every one would consult their own interest by calling at his house before purchasing elsewhere if they wish to save money. Now is the time to make purchases. Oct 9th

U We notice in our American Exchanges of this State, that the name of the elector for 8th district is inserted wrong. Instead of "Harry" it should be A. H. WARD. Please to make the correction.

U We would call the attention of our readers to the advertisement in to day's column of Lewis & Wilson, exclusive dealers in Cloaks and Mantillas, 78 Fourth street Cincinnati O.

Their store is one of the finest in the city, under Smith & Nixon's Piano Hall, 30 ft wide by 120 deep, and fitted up in the most elegant style, and is the only store doing an exclusive business in Cloaks and Mantillas. Lewis & Wilson are men of good taste, and by great energy have built up a large trade in this particular department. They received on the arrival of the steamers from Europe, the latest Parisian styles, and manufacture the Goods on the premises; so that we believe our merchants would do better by buying their Cloaks of them, than going East; being much more convenient, and not being compelled to purchase more than they actually want.

Their stock of Goods are very large and select and particularly attractive to the ladies, having an addition to a large stock of Trimmings, the latest patterns of Ladies and children's dresses. We, therefore, advise our friends who may visit Cincinnati, to call on Lewis & Wilson, and we assure them they will be well treated and will find a large and elegant assortment of Cloaks, Talmas, Baqués, &c.

Fillmore and Donelson the Union Candidates.

In the present struggle for the Presidency, a question has been raised, in comparison with which all other political questions dwindle into insignificance. That question is no other than whether the Union of these States shall be preserved, or whether that noble edifice, reared by the fathers of the Republic, shall be shattered into fragments.

Unfortunately for the peace of the country and the safety of the Union, that question is now fiercely agitated by unscrupulous demagogues and factions, both North and South. The Republican party at the North and the Democratic party at the South are waging a sectional political warfare, and striving to array North and South in political antagonism to each other, while each threatens the dissolution of our glorious Union, if foiled in its mad schemes of sectional aggrandizement and ambition. The Democratic party claims to be for the South—the Republican party for the North. Each is laboring to excite into maddened fury, a sectional antagonistic, disunion feeling in each of those great sections of our common country, for the sake of a miserable, paltry party triumph. Each relies for success in the approaching Presidential election, upon appeals to sectional jealousies and anticipations. Each is sedulously engaged in the unholy struggle to array one section of the Union against the other. At the South the Democrats appeal to men to rally to the support of their candidates, not as citizens of the Union, but as Southern men battling for the South, against the North. At the North similar incendiary appeals are made by the Black Republicans. In both these rival factions, all patriotic regard for the Union and the interests and glory of our common country seems to be extinguished in a blind rage for party triumph. The truth of what we have asserted in reference to these two parties is too fearfully corroborated by the tone of the press and the orators of both of them. Both North and South, loud and ruthless threats of disunion and vindictive appeals to sectional passion and prejudice, are heard from them. Many Kentucky Democrats who abhor the spirit of disunion are not aware of the extent to which that spirit pervades their party at the South, or they would shrink from it, as from a deadly serpent.

Suchanan and Fremont are the candidates of these sectional parties. At the South; Buchanan is proclaimed by his supporters to be the Southern candidate, and Southern men are invoked to vote for him as such—to vote for him not for the sake of the Union, but of the South. We are asked to abandon our political organization and principles, and fuse with the Southern Democracy, in the support of Buchanan, merely, that the South may be arrayed in solid phalanx, against the North.

s the candidate of neither a Northern nor a Southern sectional party. That evil and infamous distinction he leaves to his rivals, Fremont and Buchanan. He holds out no encouragement to North or South to expect him if elected to be peculiarly the President of either section; but bodily tells the sectionalists of both factions, that if any man expects him to be the President of a section he asks not his vote—that he can only be the President of the whole country, knowing no partiality nor preference for any section of it. It is his peculiar merit, at this perilous crisis, when the spirit of sectionalism and disunion is rampant in the land, to be the candidate of no section, but of those both North and South whose devotion to the Union and to their whole country is greater than to any section of it or to any party.

This being the position of Mr. Fillmore, as a candidate, his election could not be claimed as the triumph of either North or South; it would inflict no wound upon the pride of either; but would restore peace to both, by extinguishing the jealousy and strife which now alienate and divide them.

What then is the duty of all conservative Southern men, at this crisis. Is it not to give their support to Millard Fillmore, and thus cast their votes and influence against sectionalism, slavery agitation and disunion?

Every day's intelligence from the North strengthens the assurance that Fillmore and Donelson will carry the great State of New York whose electoral vote added to that of the South is sufficient to secure their election by the people. We, therefore, earnestly invoke every Kentuckian, who wishes to preserve the Union and defeat its foes, to give his influence, his best efforts, and his vote to Fillmore and Donelson, the UNION CANDIDATES.

FILLMORE MEETING

At a meeting of the friends of Fillmore and Donelson, held at the Court house in this place, on Monday night, the 6th of October last.

The meeting was called to order by I. T. Martin, and, on motion, Esq. John Williams was called to the chair, and C. T. Wilson was appointed Secretary. On motion of T. A. Curran, Messrs. J. W. Peck, A. H. Ward, Henry Nichols, I. T. Martin, and Robert Jones were selected as a Committee to draft resolutions expressing the sentiments of the meeting.

Hon. A. K. Marshall, being present, was loudly called for, and responded in a stirring and eloquent speech of about half an hour's length, setting forth in an able manner, why all conservative men should give their aid to the election of the American candidates. A. H. Ward was then called for, and in that happy strain of wit and logic always peculiar to that gentleman, entertained the audience in a short speech, which frequently called forth their warmest plaudits.—The Committee on resolutions then returned, and reported the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted, to-wit

FILLMORE POLE RAISING AT CLAYVILLE.

On Saturday, September the 27th, the gallant and patriotic Americans of the Clayville district, met together in pursuance to an appointment previously advertised, for the purpose of raising a Fillmore and Donelson Pole and forming a Club in the village of Clayville; and our friend A. H. WARD, Esq. (elector for this district) having consented to address the people on that occasion—we made it an opportunity to accompany that gentleman for the purpose of witnessing the exercises of the day as well as to meet and take by the hand our numerous American friends in that portion of the county. We arrived at the village about 10 o'clock in morning, and was delighted to find that 3 or 400 of the sturdy and intelligent yeomanry of that region were busily engaged in raising to a perpendicular a beautiful and well tapered staff, more than one hundred feet in length, from the mast head of which streamed our country's beautiful emblem, the Stars and Stripes, bearing on its folds the patriotic inscription of "FILLMORE, DONELSON, and the UNION."

We were there just in time to see the beautiful insignia of Americanism float first to the breeze in its lofty height and when it did so, the cheer after cheer for Fillmore and Donelson went up in thunder tones from the large crowd assembled well attested the determined spirit which actuates the true hearted and Union loving Americans of the Licking Valley, in the present trying crisis of their country.

After dinner the crowd was addressed by Mr. Ward in a speech of about two hours and a half in length full of sound logic and cogent and eloquent reasoning so characteristic of that gentleman, and we can truly say that Mr. Ward's effort was one which could but make every American feel, not only that the truth of his principles have been triumphantly vindicated, and the high reputation of the orator nobly maintained, but the consciousness that great good had been done in convincing Sag-Nights of the error of their way; after the speaking was over a call was made for the organization of a Fillmore Club, when immediately the names of one hundred and fifty nine voters were enrolled pledged to sustain the principles and candidates of the American party. Through the vaste of life, their emblem shone integrity and genial good nature endearing them to all who knew them, while the many recollections of the older time which their presence called up rendered their objects of deep interest in all who take pleasure in reverting to the early history of this country.
